“The boastful shall not stand in Your sight; You hate all workers of iniquity. You shall destroy those who speak falsehood; the Lord abhors the bloodthirsty and deceitful man.” (Psalm 5:5-6)

“The Despicable Democrats in Washington will give no quarter nor take a day off trying to usurp our inalienable rights. If we do not maintain a level of vigilance to protect those rights, we will surely lose them.” –Dave

I own a Smith & Wesson 9mm pistol. It has a 15- round clip, which I carry often because I have a concealed carry weapons license in the state of Florida. If Sen. Chuck Schumer (D-NY) and his nefarious Democrat colleagues ever get their way, I will be limited to a 10-round clip. At least for now.

Because the legislation on its own would never make it out of committee, Sen. Schumer and 6 Democrat Senators, (Barbara Boxer, D-Calif., Frank Lautenberg, D-N.J., Kirsten Gillibrand, D-N.Y., Dianne Feinstein, D-Calif., Bob Menendez, D-N.J., and Jack Reed, D-R.I, “sponsored bill S.A. 2575 which would make it illegal to possess or transfer large capacity magazines, belts, feed stripes, or drums holding more than 10 rounds of ammunition,” reported Anthony Martin at examiner.com.

It is not surprising to me that these seven senators will not run openly on such gun control advocacy. Granted, Sen. Schumer tried to say he was not attacking our 2nd Amendment rights (I say ours because Schumer doesn’t care about the Constitution), and yet it is legislation like S.A. 2575 that nibbles away at those unalienable rights.

Statists like Schumer and his gang are always looking for “reasonable” ways to erode our individual liberties.

WE the People must stay ever vigilant if we are going to protect these God-given rights.

FROM THE FOUNDERS

The statistis know that as long as citizens are armed, they can never implement their godless and tyrannical methods. If WE the People give up our arms then we will soon be under the jackboot of those who will defend only their own liberty at the expense of ours. We must never give up our arms.

"The supposed quietude of a good man allures the ruffian; while on the other hand arms, like laws, discourage and keep the invader and plunderer in awe, and preserve order in the world as property. The same balance would be preserved were all the world destitute of arms, for all would be alike; but since some will not, others dare not lay them aside ... Horrid mischief would ensue were the law-abiding deprived of the use of them." Thomas Paine, Pamphleteer

The fact that the National Rife Association (NRA) not only exists but is also one of the most powerful lobby group in Washington D.C. is a sad commentary on the state of our union. If you would have told Thomas Paine and the Founding Fathers that the 2nd Amendment would be under attack almost as much as the 1st Amendment, I would think they found that incomprehensible. The right to bear arms was as obvious as the right to live.

However, we have seen a constant onslaught on our God-given right to defend ourselves, our families, and our property. The current occupant of the White House has worked tirelessly to deny citizens their right to self-protection and has done so for over 15 years.

And his cronies in Congress will work tirelessly because leftists like Senator Dianne Feinstein believe "banning guns addresses a fundamental right of all Americans to feel safe." By that pretzel logic we are to believe that if all the law-abiding citizens turn in their weapons all the while the law-breaking criminals keep theirs, that we'll all of the sudden feel safe. That is absolute nonsense.

The Founders expected us to maintain our liberties and let us be reminded of this by J Q Adams:

"Posterity! You will never know how much it cost the present Generation to preserve your Freedom! I hope you will make good use of it. If you do not, I shall repent in Heaven, that I ever took half the Pains to preserve it."

FROM THE PULPIT

EDITOR'S NOTE: We are using a previous edition's "From the Pulpit" page because it precisely addresses this week's issue.

"Self-preservation is one of the strongest, and a universal principle of the human mind: And this principle allows of every thing necessary to self-defence, opposing force to force, and violence to violence. This is so universally allowed that I need not attempt to prove it." Reverend Simeon Howard, "A Sermon Preached to the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company in Boston," 1773.

Christians are to love life; we are to protect it by all means possible. Whether an unborn baby in the womb, a neighbor being attacked by a burglar, or an elderly person in their latter years, all life is precious in the sight of God.

When we as a people get to the point that we are unwilling to defend life, eventually we will get to the point that we are unwilling to defend ourselves.

Our right to bear arms was not haphazardly written into our Bill of Rights; it was just another instance of the great and learned wisdom of our Founders. Larry Pratt, Executive Director of Gun Owners of America, writes:

The wisdom of the framers of the Constitution is consistent with the lessons of the Bible. Instruments of defense should be dispersed throughout the nation, not concentrated in the hands of the central government. In a Godly country, righteousness governs each man through the Holy Spirit working within. The government has no cause to want a monopoly of force; the government that desires such a monopoly is a threat to the lives, liberty and property of its citizens. The assumption that only danger can result from people carrying guns is used to justify government monopoly of force. The notion that the people cannot be trusted to keep and bear their own arms informs us that ours, like the time of Solomon, may be one of great riches but is also a time of peril for free people. If Christ is not our King, we shall have a dictator to rule over us, just as Samuel warned.

You can rest assured that gun opponents will begin a call for the banning of all handguns and eventually all weapons. A government that desires to unarm the populace is one that intends to harm it.

For Christians, if we willfully give away our right to self-defense to the point of not defending one's own life; it is the equivalent of suicide.

TO THE STREETS

WE the People are responsible for defending our God-given liberties as admonished from history by John Quincy Adams. Here are some ways to put feet to this defense:

1. Contact Senators Schumer, Boxer, Lautenberg, Gillibrand, Feinstein, Menendez, and Reed's office and tell them to lay off our guns.
2. Call the National Republican Senatorial Committee and ask them to remain ever vigilant of other attempts to place similar amendments such as S.A. 2575 and defeat them and expose them to the public.
3. Contact your own senators and tell them to never support any legislation that attacks our 2nd Amendment rights.
4. If you are not already a member, please consider joining the National Rifle Association (NRA) and/or Gun Owners of America (GOA). They are solid on protecting Americans' 2nd Amendment rights.
5. Make sure you know the 2nd Amendment position of all candidates, local, state, and federal, because all politics are local and like the recent shooting we saw in Aurora, Colorado, that municipality had stricter gun control laws than the rest of the state.

Be sure to engage gun control advocates to get them to fully explain their positions. See if they are capable of having an intelligent conversation on crime and gun ownership. Share this article with them and show them how crime actually goes down when gun ownership increases.

The way to defeat evil is to shine light upon it and we know that aletheia truth is the true light that brings revelation. Some people will never be persuaded from their beliefs; I had to learn that lesson once again this week having a Twitter conversation with an Obama drone. But there are many Americans who are coming to realize that they have been living a lie for so long and are ready to live in the light.
