Volume IV, Issue I

“Let not mercy and truth forsake you; bind them around your neck, write them on the tablet of your heart.” (Proverbs 19:9)

“Truth will always be truth no matter how hard the secular humanists try to distort it. However, if we the remnant do not portray, protect, and pursue the truth, then it will continue to be marred by the enemies of God, the eternal source of truth.” – Dave defines liar as

“a person who tells lies.” I like that; simple and succinct. No nuance there. It further defines a lie as “a false statement made with deliberate intent to deceive; an intentional untruth; a falsehood.” I don’t like the word untruth, but we’ll go with it.

We vehemently oppose liars, lies, falsehoods, and untruths. In 2013, we heard lies openly and blatantly told by Barack Obama and his supporters (to include the GOP leadership) in a manner that demands action. We’ve already shown that breaking your oath of office is an impeachable offense.

However, with the current House Leadership there is a better chance of GLAAD and Phil Robertson reconciling that John Boehner ever allowing articles of impeachment to come to a vote.

There is only one remedy for lying. As with your children when they lie, liars must be punished. If a public official lies, then they violate their oath of office. If they fail to fulfill their oath of office, they lie. No matter the cause and effect, the result is a need for new representative government (at all levels).

The midterm elections are quickly approaching with many of the primaries coming in late spring – early summer.
(Please continue to next page)

We will be closely watching those primaries where incumbents are being challenged by solid constitutional conservatives, including our own Florida 1st Congressional District.

Rebuilding a house from within takes dedication, determination, and discernment. We won't be able to clean up Congress in one election, but great progress can be made.

First and foremost, voters must agree that there are no sacred cows; all incumbents are eligible to be primaried. Determining those who should not be won't take much effort; that list is very small.

We will be opposed by Karl Rove, the GOP Establishment, the US Chamber of Commerce, and other fat-wallet corporatists who want to maintain the status quo/government gravy train. The Truth Watch will be doing everything in its power to get the truth out to the public.

It is the truth that will set us free and overcome the lies.

FROM THE FOUNDERS

The level of lies spewed from Barack Obama and his corrupt administration is exactly the type of tyranny over which our Founders began the American Revolution. The list of grievances against King George III listed in the Declaration of Independence pales compared to the constitutional violations of Mr. Obama and his minions.

“A general dissolution of principles and manners will more surely overthrow the liberties of America than the whole force of the common enemy. While the people are virtuous they cannot be subdued; but when once they lose their virtue then will be ready to surrender their liberties to the first external or internal invader.” Samuel Adams, letter to James Warren, February 12, 1779

If we as a nation have not arrived to what Samuel Adams warned against in his letter to James Warren, then I shudder to think of what it would be. At my Salt and Light Blog, I wrote over four years ago:

We are a people without national virtue. We are a people who have come to accept as the norm the postmodern thinking of “what is right for you is not necessarily right for me”; meaning there is no absolute truth. Without absolute truth, there is no morality ruler.

Without our national morality ruler, we are no longer a nation of laws but one of lawbreakers. On the next page you will see a poignant quote from the late lion of faith Dr. Adrian Rogers, who outlines the end result of our postmodern world.

The degradation of our national virtue has warped into hyper-speed under the influence of Barack Obama and the malfeasance of an impotent Congress. Barack Obama does what he does from the Oval Office because he knows he can get away with it. Harry Reid and Nancy Pelosi enable him, while Mitch McConnell and John Boehner wring their hands because of him. All of the national leadership must be replaced if America is to get back on course.

FROM THE PULPIT

"The great American dream is dissolving because of sin: sexual perversion, killing unborn children, break-up of the family, obsession with material things, craving for pleasure. America is self-indulgent, out of control. With the erosion of character, we relinquish more responsibility to government, and whatever it subsidizes, government says it must control. When we depend on government to feed us, it will control us. Government is here to protect from tyranny and punish evildoers, not meet our needs. Sure as night follows day, when government provides, it begins to regulate. Then it's free to oppress." Dr. Adrian Rogers, from "The Only Hope For America,"

It is hard to believe that Dr. Rogers went to be with Jesus over five years ago. He could have written those words yesterday. However, while his words were true years ago when he said them, the level of depravity in America has grown exponentially.

It is going to take a renewal of the pulpits speaking out against sin, and the pew-sitters repenting of their sins and recommitting to a life of righteousness. It is up to the church to correct the course of America.

Dear patriots, we cannot expect any political party to do the work of the church. Jesus called us to be salt and light and our salt has lost its saltiness and the our light is but a glimmer.

However, this can be quickly turned around. Encourage your pastors, deacons, and Sunday school teachers. Invite everyone you know to attend church. Read your Bibles faithfully, seeking biblical wisdom that will help us think critically through all the issues we face as temporal citizens of the United States and eternal citizens of the Kingdom of God.

America has always rose to the occasion. It is important to recognize that our nation's woes are spiritual at its core. As Dr. Rogers wrote, we are self-indulgent and out of control. We, specifically the body of Christ, must decide if we are going to stop cursing the darkness and take our lamps out from under our baskets and let them "so shine before men" (Matthew 5:15-16).

So much of what the government does today used to be handled by the church. Are we faithfully executing our duties as Christians in our communities? That is as good as any place to start taking back control from the government.

TO THE STREETS

If WE the People are going to portray, protect, and pursue the truth, then we need to have good sources of truth. The way we do this is through a systematic approach. When I was in seminary, we took a systematic approach to learning theology. This is the same avenue that we will take in learning about the truth. Here are some suggestions for you to begin your trek to the truth.

1. Read your Bibles. If you don't have one, get one or just go to www.bible.com and they have plenty of free resources there. Begin by reading one proverb each day. There are 31 Proverbs, one for each day. Do this for one month and be amazed at the amount of wisdom you learn.
2. Read the Declaration of Independence. If you've done so in the past, do it again for the first time. Read it as a legal indictment against the King and Parliament, because that is exactly what it is. It is a legal document.
3. Read the Constitution. I will post on our blog a dissection of the Preamble that I teach, to understand and embrace its full meaning. After that, read the original document and be sure you understand all the clauses.
4. Read the Bill of Rights; without the promise of this founding document, the Constitution would never have been ratified. Be sure you understand each amendment and its contribution to individual liberty.
5. Read the Federalist Papers. I highly recommend you begin with the small book "How to Read the Federalist Papers" by Anthony Peacock. After that, you can delve into the actual papers.

These five steps will put you on the path to God's truth, our source of true liberty, and how our nation was founded on biblical principles. However, we alone cannot turn the tide. We need to mobilize our own circle of friends, relatives, associates, and neighbors to come alive as citizens and take back our country. That being said, we do not want to simply mobilize voters who are uninformed. They need to know the truth, and The Truth Watch is a great place to start.
