“The words of his mouth are wickedness and deceit; he has ceased to be wise and to do good. He devises wickedness on his bed; he sets himself in a way that is not good; he does not abhor evil .” (Psalm 36:3-4)

“CNN self-describes itself as ‘the most trusted news source.’ Among several CNN memes is ‘the most busted news source.’ The media is learning a hard lesson that Americans will no longer tolerate being deceived.” –Dave media is intent on destroying conservatism and our constitutional republic.

The latest example of this blatant bias and hatred towards our American way of life is through the brilliance of James O’Keefe’s Project Veritas undercover filming of some of CNN’s producers and panelists. Furthermore, CNN has been caught committing lies of omission while doing a segment on Trump voters.

The most egregious act committed by CNN was its open threat towards a private citizen who produced a meme showing President Trump body-slammimg CNN WWE-style. The meme #CNNBlackmail was trending high on most social media sites.

WE the People are awakening to the Truth that the mainstream

Of course CNN was defending its actions as being misrepresented, but how do you interpret the following?

“CNN is not publishing ‘HanA**holeSolo’s’ name because he is a private citizen who has issued an extensive statement of apology, showed his remorse by saying he has taken down all his offending posts, and because he said he is not going to repeat this ugly behavior on social media again,” the article stated. “... CNN reserves the right to publish his identity should any of that change.”

Reserving the right is news talk for threatening to “dox” someone, which means a news agency or reporter will identify an unnamed source.

CNN is in a complete stall-dive and the end is fast approaching. This past week they got fewer viewers than reruns of Yogi Bear, a total embarrassment to this network.

FROM THE FOUNDERS

CNN does not realize how deep it has dug itself into their own pit of deception. They are getting to the point where they lie and try to cover it up and when they do tell the truth, it will be harder for people to believe them.

“He who permits himself to tell a lie once, finds it much easier to do it a second and a third time, till at length it becomes habitual; he tells lies without attending to it, and truths without the world’s believing him. This falsehood of the tongue leads to that of the heart, and in time depraves all its good dispositions.” Thomas Jefferson, in a letter to Peter Carr, August 19, 1785.

To be a self-governing people, we must be a truthful society. To be a free and trusted press, the media must discover and defend the truth. While it is true the media has always had a bias to some degree, it is come to the point where it believes it can design the facts to support their leftist agenda.

James Madison, writing in Federalist #39, defends republican principles:

“The first question that offers itself is, whether the general form and aspect of the government be strictly republican. It is evident that no other form would be reconcilable with the genius of the people of America; with the fundamental principles of the Revolution; or with that honorable determination which animates every votary of freedom, to rest all our political experiments on the capacity of mankind for self-government.”

Madison is instructing those who are devoted to freedom to understand that for our republic to stand, it must be done by a people with the ability to self-govern themselves.

CNN not only lacks the ability to self-govern itself, but more importantly it is driven by greed, the antithesis the virtues upon which our nation was founded and freedom depends. While I will remain hopeful, because God can change any depraved heart, it is doubtful that CNN will learn its lesson, bringing its certain demise.

FROM THE PULPIT

“What I want you to see...is that we must not play fast and loose with this issue [lying] as though it were a matter of indifference to God whether we tell the truth or not. There is some kind of connection between the practice of lying and the condition of the heart that makes biblical writers certain that those who practice lying in their ordinary lives are outside the scope of salvation.” Pastor John Piper, “Speak Truth with Your Neighbor” sermon, Minneapolis, MN, September 28, 1986.

Thirty years ago, Pastor John Piper was addressing the issue of it ever being right to tell a lie. He gave biblical examples of the Hebrew midwives in Exodus 1 and Rahab the harlot in Joshua 2. Piper makes the point that these God-fearing women lied to oppose evil. However, no where in the Bible does it commend such lying.

Contrast that with numerous biblical examples against lying. You can read Pastor Piper’s sermon at the link provided, but understand that the root of lying is from an unregenerate heart. Having a deceptive heart explains why lost people accept lying as a fact of life. It’s from where the lie, a white lie, comes. Lost people can freely justify lying because their spiritual father, Satan, is described by Jesus as the father of lies (John 8:44).

It is no stretch of the imagination to consider those people secretly interviewed in the Project Veritas videos as unregenerate. Understanding that we are dealing with the spiritual children of Satan allows us to see that we are dealing with unadulterated evil.

Evil must be opposed at all times. It is true that Project Veritas uses deception to record the true feelings and intentions of CNN producers and analysts, and it would be nice if it wasn’t necessary. But we are not living in the age of nice; we are living in a postmodern world where truth is relative and the ends justify the means.

A book I encourage all patriots to read is Saul Alinsky’s Rules for Radicals: A Pragmatic Primer for Realistic Radicals. This is the playbook for the Left that has been in play since 1971, over 45 years. When you read this book, you will not only understand the liberal tactics of the last generation and a half. More illuminating is Alinsky’s quote of Lucifer. We’ll end this page with the following quote from Alinsky’s primer on rules pertaining to the ethics of means and ends:

“The second rule of the ethics of means and ends is that the judgment of the ethics of means is dependent upon the political position of those sitting in judgment.”

So if CNN believes the ends justify the means, then by all means...lie!

TO THE STREETS

CNN is tanking in the ratings big time. While the Bible clearly teaches us that we are not to delight in the demise of our enemies, we can celebrate when righteousness reigns. Using CNN's only yardstick for presenting fake news, let's ensure their ratings plummet continues until it crashes to the ground or they repent and repair the damage they've caused. I'd maintain normal breathing patterns waiting on the latter happening. Nevertheless, here are some concrete steps we can take:

1. CNN invites us "to tell us what you think about our shows, our anchors, and our hot topics for the day." You can do so here. Be nice and be specific! Just look at their top headline for the day, "Trump puts US in club of one," to see they are continuing their fake news.
2. Please listen to my last podcast, "Dirty Laundry," where I tackle the media's malfeasance. There are two important articles you need to read there that I had meant to cover in the podcast but never got to. Please also subscribe!
3. I've mentioned them before, but thanks to my son-in-law Ben I've found a news source that presents the facts unbiased and unfiltered. They leave commentary for its commentary episodes and shows. The source is One America News Network (OAN) and they are must-see TV. If your provider does not carry OAN, you can read their articles and watch their videos and their website. The immediate contrast to CNN is stunning. You won't be disappointed.
4. If your local news sources are publishing fake news, give them one warning and then unsubscribe from them. Ratings, be it listeners, viewers, or readers, will always get their attention. Ratings means revenue, plain and simple. A lack of revenue means their business is taking on water. As a news consumer, you can affect the amount of floodwaters they take on.
5. Last, please invite your friends, relatives, associates, and friends to not only join The Truth Watch, but also visit our new Truth Watch PAC website and to subscribe to our Truth Watch Radio podcast.

CNN believes it can shape the news as they see fit. The Truth is that WE the People can not only shape the news, but we can change the direction of our nation.
