“Your princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves; everyone loves bribes, and follows after rewards. They do not defend the fatherless, nor does the cause of the widow come before them.” (Proverbs 19:9)

“If Senate Republicans will not use the powers vested to the minority party, then the last vestige of power left to the states has been lost. The Senate’s original design was to give state’s equal representation and power to stop a tyrannical majority.” – Dave

While America was being rightly distracted by the financial fiasco that is ObamaCare, Senate Democrats and seven traitorous Republicans voted for cloture and advanced the Employment Non-Discrimination Act (ENDA), which mandates employers hire and retain open homosexuals and cross-dressing “trans-gendered” employees.

In another direct assault on our 1st Amendment rights, Christian employers would be forced to hire people who are antithetical to their values. Hiding behind the veil the making it illegal for businesses to discriminate on the basis of sexual orientation or gender identity, the Senate is trying to force godly men and women to violate biblical principles.

The militant homosexual agenda has been steadily marching towards tearing down every last vestige of religion in America.

In a rare moment of transparency and truth, lesbian journalist Masha Gessen admitted on the radio “that homosexual activists are lying about their radical political agenda.” Gessen stated that “The institution of marriage is going to change, and it should change. And again, I don’t think it should exist.”

Because of seven cowardly Senate Republicans, who knew cloture meant passage of this vile legislation, people of faith have to rely on the House of Representatives, led by John Boehner and Eric Cantor, to stop this further slide towards Gomorrah.

Dear Patriots, we must understand the constitutional powers invested in the Senate and how the 17th Amendment made the 10th Amendment powerless. The only real power left to the minority in the Senate is the filibuster. And seven renegade Republicans betrayed the Constitution and the Bible. No more!

FROM THE FOUNDERS

The filibuster is an important tool for the minority to affect legislation. The required sixty votes requires a super-majority be elected to the Senate to overcome a filibuster, known as cloture. When the minority gives up that advantage by rolling over to the simple majority, then said majority can pass any legislation it pleases.

“Another advantage accruing from this ingredient in the constitution of the Senate is, the additional impediment it must prove against improper acts of legislation. No law or resolution can now be passed without the concurrence, first, of a majority of the people, and then, of a majority of the States.” Alexander Hamilton, Federalist #62

A majority of sixty senators by either political party is considered the treasure of the Senate. With sixty senators, it is thought that any legislation the majority desires can be passed without opposition, supposing all senators in the majority vote in favor of it. But without that super-majority, the minority has the power of the filibuster to stop any legislation it opposes. Again, the presupposition of party unity by the minority assures blockage. However, should enough senators in the minority “cross the aisle” and vote for cloture with the simple majority, then the legislation is brought to the floor for debate.

Once the Senate Majority Leader closes debate on a piece of legislation, a vote is taken and a simple majority is required for passage. Thus, when we have turncoat senators in the minority voting for cloture, godless legislation such as ENDA easily passes the Senate and the only recourse WE the People who worship the God of the Bible have are the House of Representatives or the President upon which to rely. In this present day, the latter is a fool’s errand and the former is risky at best. Thankfully Speaker of the House John Boehner opposes the legislation.

Those seven Republican senators that voted for cloture and the three who joined them voting for the legislation must be held accountable. They must be defeated in the primaries and replaced with godly men and women. See “To The Streets” for actions to take against these ten renegades.

FROM THE PULPIT

“The U.S. Constitution’s First Amendment guarantees fundamental rights for the citizens of our Republic. It is not a mere technicality or obstruction for powerful lobbies to break through. ENDA, even as amended by some well-meaning Senators, remains narrow, convoluted, and promises a legal burden and chill on employers committed to honoring the tenets of their faith in the workplace.” Statement from National Religious Broadcasters President & CEO Dr. Jerry A. Johnson, November 7, 2013

The thinly-veiled “religious exemption” found in Senate bill 815 is swiss cheese legislation that can easily be modified down the road once ENDA becomes “the law of the land.” After employment “discrimination” in America is ended, does anyone truly believe that the militant homosexual agenda will rest on that? Would not the obvious next step be to end the biblical model of marriage?

Of course it is because we already have seen from “Unshackled” that the ultimate goal of the homosexual movement is just such a move. Homosexual activists know that they cannot overcome their “civil rights” canyon in one giant leap, so they’ll take any advance they can get. Additionally, with many state legislatures illegally legalizing homosexual marriage it won’t be long before religious organizations will be required to adhere to ENDA.

Lawmakers must learn two important lessons from two founding sources of inspiration for our Declaration of Independence and U.S. Constitution. First, the Bible clearly states:

“No, you yourselves do wrong and cheat, and you do these things to your brethren! Do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived. Neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor homosexuals, nor sodomites, nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners will inherit the kingdom of God.” (1 Corinthians 6:8-10)

Next John Locke a philosopher who greatly influenced our Founding Fathers, wrote:

“The rules that they [legislature] make for other men’s actions, must, as well as their own and other men’s actions, be conformable to the law of nature, i.e. to the will of God, of which that is a declaration, and the fundamental law of nature being the preservation of mankind, no human sanction can be good, or valid against it.”

ENDA clearly violates the law of nature and the will of God and must be opposed.

TO THE STREETS

We are presented with a great issue. As Christian patriots we can no longer stand back and hope that Congress will do the right thing. Their record of unrighteousness would fill volumes, and that's just the current Congress. We must hold accountable those who violate the laws of nature and nature's God. So here are some suggestions:

1. We must primary the following seven Republican senators (primary year in parenthesis) who voted to end cloture on ENDA. They are: Kelly Ayotte of New Hampshire (2016), Susan Collins of Maine (2014), Orrin Hatch of Utah (2018), Dean Heller of Nevada (2018), Mark Kirk of Illinois (2016), Rob Portman of Ohio (2016), and Pat Toomey of Pennsylvania (2016).
2. Additionally, the following ten Republican senators voted for passage of ENDA: Ayotte, Collins, Jeff Flake of Arizona (2018), Hatch, Heller, Kirk, John McCain of Arizona (2016), Lisa Murkowski of Alaska (2016), Portman, and Toomey. Republican Senators Barrasso, Coburn, and Sessions did not vote.
3. Those ten senators must be primaried. Of course their voting records give us plenty of reasons to primary them, but voting for cloture and/or passage of ENDA is reason enough to throw them out of office. They have violated their oaths of office.
4. We need to get more members of The Truth Watch so when we launch Swing the Vote we can approach these senators in numbers of strength to hopefully convince them to retire, but if not, primary them. I need your help enlisting your friends, relatives, associates, and neighbors in joining our growing army.

We have been betrayed by so called conservatives and constitutionalists who pander to we the Christian vote only to be stabbed in the back when we needed them the most. We must punish these cowardly traitors for their treachery by voting them out of office. Let their removals be a lesson to anyone who would desire to represent us in Congress. They must understand that servant leadership is bound in following the Holy Bible, the Declaration of Independence, and the US Constitution.
