“I will make you a great nation; I will bless you and make your name great; and you shall be a blessing. I will those who bless you, and I will curse him who curses you; and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed.” (Genesis 12:2-3)

“The above passage is known as the Abrahamic Covenant and it is eternal and unconditional. America is currently cursing Israel and it is to our own demise we do so.” –Dave

In the past, the United States has been a staunch ally of Israel.

There have been times in past administrations where Israel's best interests were overlooked politically, particularly with Lebanon, the Golan Heights, and the West Bank.

However, the Obama Administration's open betrayal and treachery towards Israel is beyond alarming. Barack Obama and his minions do not even hide their disdain for primarily Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu. Obama political operatives even went to Israel to try and stop Netanyahu's reelection by supporting his liberal opponent.

The nuclear agreement between Iran and the US is a complete sellout of Israel and is a green light for Iran to develop nuclear weapons. I believe this was intentional by the Obama Administration.

Barack Obama is an avowed anti-colonialist, brilliantly documented in Dinesh D'Souza's “2016: Obama's America.”

No less key in the United States' capitulation to Iran is the influence of Valerie Jarrett. Jarrett, an Iranian-born Chicago lawyer, is a senior advisor to Obama. The case has been made that Jarrett is the actual president and Obama a mere figure head.

This deadly duo, aided by the buffoonish traitor Secretary of State John Kerry, has single-handedly given Iran what key Middle Eastern players have opposed for decades.

Some contend that Israel is of no vital interest to America and that our Founding Fathers would have avoided such a foreign entanglement. While the latter point is historically accurate, it is also contextually naive. The former point is patently false.

Turn the page to find out why...

FROM THE FOUNDERS

Isolationists like to quote our Founders in defense of their non-interventionist foreign policy. Our Founders did not get embroiled in foreign affairs as a matter of practicality. Nevertheless, the Middle East has been an issue for our nation from almost the beginning.

"To this state of general peace with which we have been blessed, one only exception exists. Tripoli, the least considerable of the Barbary States, had come forward with demands unfounded either in right or in compact, and had permitted itself to denounce war, on our failure to comply before a given day. The style of the demand admitted but one answer. I sent a small squadron of frigates into the Mediterranean. . . ." President Thomas Jefferson, March 4, 1801, 1st Inaugural Address.

I hate war. My family has been affected by it. My son, to quote Lincoln at Gettysburg, "gave the last full measure." It would be wonderful if we could live in the make-believe world where liberals troll and think we never need to address evil.

Iran is hell-bent on destroying not only the "Little Satan" Israel, but also the "Great Satan," the United States of America. Obama, of whom I believe to be a closeted-Muslim, and his Iranian-born senior advisor Jarrett are either dumber than a stump when it comes to understanding Iran's real intent, or their motives are truly devious.

I believe the latter to be true.

There is no empirical or historical evidence to trust Iran on matters of peaceful nuclear development. Iran, not unlike Iraq, has always given the international community the stiff-arm when it comes to diplomatic agreement verification.

Ronald Reagan's foreign policy of "trust, but verify" is needed in large doses when dealing with tyrannical regimes. Iran cannot and should not be trusted. Israel's sovereignty and survival depends upon controlling Iran's access to a nuclear weapon.

FROM THE PULPIT

“Israel is the cradle of our faith. Our Old Testament forefathers lived and died in the land of Israel. Jesus was born there...Leaving other issues aside, there is a strong and unbreakable connection between Israel and the Christian faith. And if you believe (as I do), that the modern state of Israel is a fulfillment of Bible prophecy, then, yes, Israel will be special to you and different from other nations in other places.” Dr. Ray Pritchard, “Why I Support Israel” article.

Dr. Pritchard succinctly defines why all Christians should support Israel. In 2006, I wrote in my book “Understanding Evangelicals: A Guide to Jesusland:”

The United States, with evangelicals greatly influencing its foreign policy, rightfully stands with Israel against an ever-increasing growth of anti-Semitism. Evangelicals do not support Israel because they expect some special blessing for doing so or trying to ensure conditions meet end-times prophecy. We should never mix up our Christian beliefs as Christian motives. Evangelicals support Israel as a nation and Jews as a people because of our Christian love and respect for biblical covenants.

Iran is the spearhead of Islam’s dream of a caliphate. Indeed each sect of Islam has its own interpretation of how the Caliphate will be established and ruled. Nevertheless, it is antithetical to liberty. Muslims are not allowed free will such as Americans know it.

Alarmingly, more and more American cities are establishing sharia law. This is nothing less than the Islamization of America. American citizens should be greatly concerned about Islam’s spread across our country.

Understand that when you speak such concern, you will be accused of Islamophobia and bigotry. Such persecution comes with being a Christian, however if we do not stand against this, we will one day be overtaken by it. That is the design of Islam.

This is why the United States’ support of the latest Iranian nuclear agreement is so egregious. It gives the primary country seeking to spread Islam world wide the means to intimidate weaker nations to succumb to such pressure.

Israel is God’s chosen people. It is the birthplace of my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. While I know that God will defend her, we have a biblical requirement - the Abrahamic Covenant - to support and defend Israel.

TO THE STREETS

WE the People are going to have to reverse the destruction wrought upon Israel by the Obama Administration and Congress' abdication of its constitutional powers. Congress believes the bill it recently passed limits Obama's powers to negotiate with Iran, but Obama (I mean Jarrett) didn't consider it a loss. If Valerie Jarrett is willing to admit that publicly, then the deal is bad for both America and Israel.

Our marching orders are to first bone up on the deal and then contact the White House and Congress and voice our opposition:

1. Read John Hayward's breitbart.com article on just how devious the Iran deal is.
2. Contact the White House and officially register your opposition to this deal.
3. Contact your US Representative and let him or her know that you strongly oppose the Iran nuclear deal. Just type in your zip code on the top right box of the web page to find your Congressman's contact info.
4. Contact your two US Senators at this web page. You can use the "Find Your Senators" pull down menu at the top right of the page. Remind your senators of their constitutional duty and powers of "advise and consent" on all treaties as outlined in Article II, Section 2, Clause 2.
5. Begin paying attention to what the 2016 presidential candidates say about supporting Israel. Any hint of isolationism or moral equivalency when dealing with Israel and its sworn enemies must be met with strong caution and skepticism. America must stand by Israel.

We have a Republican-led Congress that is systematically maintaining the Democrat Party's status quo. There are nothing more than pyrrhic victories to which Republican leaders can point in its handling of legislative affairs.

This is never more true than its handling of the Iran nuclear deal.
